DIRECTIONS FOR EXECUTION AND RECORDATION

Junior Accessory Dwelling Units (JADUs) require the approval of an Administrative Permit Review (APR) from the City of Hollister Planning Division. As a condition of approval within the APR, the applicant shall record deed restriction against the property prior to obtaining a final occupancy from the Building Department. The Planning Division has provided the Deed Restriction documents for the Property Owner, please see attached.

The Deed Restriction documents shall be completed and notarized by the Property Owner at the applicant/owner's expense. Once completed, the documents shall be submitted to the Planning Division for review and forwarded to the City Attorney to assure proper form and content. If not acceptable, the documents will be returned for correction.

The following outlines how to fill out the deed restriction document. Please read and follow the instructions carefully.

The steps are as follows:

1. Complete the attached Deed Restriction Form.
 - A. In the introductory paragraph, insert the date that the document is executed.
 - B. All holders of title to the Property must sign this document. Insert all names of owners in the introductory paragraph. You will have to ask for the deed to the property or a title report in order to ensure you have the correct names. Note: Deeds can be viewed or copied in person at the San Benito County Recorder's Office. They cannot be viewed or copied on-line.
 - C. Describe the status of the property owner in the introductory paragraph. For example, "a California corporation," "a single person," "husband and wife," etc. The martial status of the property own is important, because all owners of the property must execute the document.
 - D. Attach the legal description for the property as Exhibit A. The legal description should be included in or attached to the grant deed for the Property. The legal description can also be found on a title report. If a copy of the legal description can be attached as Exhibit A. Otherwise, the legal description must be retyped verbatim (with no changes).
 - E. Attach the depiction of the ADU for the property as Exhibit B.

2. Sign the Deed Restriction and have the documents notarized. The signatures must be notarized and the notary acknowledgment attached to the document. All signatures must be complete and properly notarized. Corporations, partnerships, government entities and trusts require different forms of notary acknowledgment from the “personal” form provided here. The signature line must indicate the name of the corporation, etc., and the notary public must use the appropriate form of acknowledgment. If the notary public uses the wrong form, the document will be returned for a new notary acknowledgement.
3. Submit the documents to the Planning Division. The Planning Division staff and City Attorney will review the documents to assure proper form and content. If not acceptable, the documents will be returned to you for correction.
4. Once staff determines the documents to be of acceptable form and content, the documents will be provided to the applicant for Recordation with the San Benito County Recorder’s Office.
5. Upon recordation of these documents, the Planning Division shall be provided with proof of recordation. Please note that with recording, this document becomes a permanent exception to the title.
6. Once proof of recordation is received, the Planning Division will release the document to Building Department for consideration toward the issuance of a final occupancy.

PLEASE NOTE

The above instructions must be followed exactly. Failure to complete each item properly will necessitate return of the document for re-execution and delay issuance of your permits.

E. The Declarant understands and acknowledges that the Property is subject to each of the restrictions set forth below:

1. Covenant Runs with the Land. In consideration of approval of the junior accessory dwelling unit, the Declarant does hereby covenant and agree to restrict, and does by this instrument intend to restrict, the future use of the Property as set forth below, by the establishment of this covenant running with the land. This Deed Restriction is intended to run with the Property and be binding upon all future owners thereof.
2. Restrictive Covenants. The following restrictive covenants shall apply to the Property:

 - f. Other Requirements. The JADU shall comply with all other applicable requirements set forth in California State law or the City of Hollister Municipal Code.

The above-listed restrictions shall be binding upon any successor in ownership of the Property as long as the JADU exists on the Property. The Declarant further understands and acknowledges that lack of compliance with this Declaration may result in legal action by the City against the property and/or occupants of the Property. The City shall have the right to enforce this Declaration and the conditions contained herein through any legal means available to it, including by code enforcement or by appropriate action at law or suit in equity against the Declarant and any persons claiming an interest in the Property.

3. Declarant's Reserved Rights. Declarant reserves to itself, and to its representatives, heirs, successors, assigns, transferees, agents, and lessees, all rights inuring from ownership of the Property not otherwise restricted or prohibited by virtue of this Declaration, including, but not limited to, the right to engage in or permit others to engage in all uses of the Property that are not expressly prohibited by this Declaration, and are not inconsistent with the purposes of this Declaration.
4. Successors and Assign Bound. Declarant hereby agrees and acknowledges that the Property shall be held, sold, conveyed, owned and used subject to the applicable terms, conditions and obligations imposed by this Declaration relating to the use of the Property, and matters incidental thereto. Such terms, conditions, and obligations are a burden and restriction on the use of the Property, as applicable.

The provisions of this Declaration shall (subject to the limitations contained in this Declaration and without modifying the provisions of this Declaration) be enforceable as equitable servitudes and conditions, restrictions and covenants running with the land, and shall be binding on the Declarant and upon each and all of its respective heirs, devisees, successors, and assigns, grantees, mortgagees, lienors, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, executors, trustees, successor trustees, beneficiaries, administrators, any person who claims an interest in the Property, and upon future owners of the Property and each of them.

 - b. Liberal Construction. Any general rule of construction to the contrary notwithstanding, this Declaration shall be liberally construed to affect the purposes of this Declaration. If any provision in this Declaration is found to be ambiguous, an interpretation consistent with the purposes of this Declaration that would rather render the provision valid shall be favored over any interpretation that would render it invalid.

- c. Severability. If any provision of this Declaration or the application thereof is found to be invalid, the remaining provisions of the Declaration or the application of such provisions other than that found to be invalid shall not be affected thereby.
 - d. Termination of Rights and Obligations. A party's rights and obligations under this Declaration terminate upon transfer of the party's interest in the Declaration or Property, except that liability for acts, omissions or breaches occurring prior to transfer shall survive transfer.
 - e. Captions. The captions in this Declaration have been inserted solely for convenience of reference and are not a part of this Declaration and shall have no effect upon its construction or interpretation.

5. The restrictions contained in this Covenant shall inure to the benefit of the City and its successor, and assigns, and such covenants shall run in favor of the City for the entire period during which covenants shall be in force and effect, without regard to whether the City is or remains an owner of any land or interest therein to which such covenants relate.
