No Public comment

OLD BUSINESS

Garza gave update on the City of Hollister Monument Sign Downtown Hollister that the sign is still in progress and that bricks are being installed now.

NEW BUSINESS

Reviewed Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Questioning + (Plus) logo with commissioners. Commissioners approved sticker for public distribution with a few changes requested. The item was accepted by Commissioner Sanchez and with a second from Commissioner Hillstock. Motion passed 5-0.

Garza let the commissioners know the Brown Act Training will be on April 24th, 6:00 pm at the City Hall Council Chambers.

Garza reviewed the ACC by-laws. Hillstock said 1 year is good for youth commissioners Grade 9 – 12. Tina to edit to vote on next meeting. Tina to ask 1 over ½ for quorum. Asked to add purchasing policy and time keeper to bylaws.

Chair Chiado added item to new business asking that each item on the agenda be timed.

COMMISSIONER COMMENTS:

Hillstock – Downloaded placemaking book recommended by Commissioner Ross. Hillstock asked for an update on the K-Mart building. Garza let the commissioners know that the planning department is working on a policy for empty buildings.

Ross – Watched a video about a park with music walls. Asked about applying for the Tony Hawk grant. Talked about the Clean California Artist Talk.

Chiado – Let us know there is an Art Showcase- Seeing things in a new light on April 12 from 4 to 7 at the Veterans’ Memorial Building.

Sanchez – Requested we add the Tony Hawk grant to the next agenda. April is Art & Culture month. Would like to start a round table with artists something how Gilroy does it. Would like to do a placemaking downtown Hollister. Gave us an example of Day of the Dead putting alters in front of businesses.

The setting of the Next Regular Meeting Date: Tuesday May 9, 2023 at 6:00 pm
